Astrologer Fiona Graham forecasts your fortnight ahead —

GEMINI (22 May-21 June)

You may wish to express yourself freely, but do exercise some self-control with your bank manager. By the 28th, it's clear you can make a difference at work, but this may require shock tactics and going out on a limb. On the 31st, domestic life could be stormy, yet here too you'll make your mark. On the 3rd, there's no denying your magnetic appeal, so don't be surprised if someone becomes obsessed with you. An escape route — if needed — will appear on the 5th.

CANCER (22 June-23 July)

Everyone needs space to dream, so take some time out and don't feel guilty about being unproductive: self-censorship is pointless now. Pondering possibilities without making definite moves is essential on the 28th. By the 1st, you will make a breakthrough, which for now you are entitled to keep to yourself. This internal struggle will empower you for the action to come.

LEO (24 July-23 Aug)

More than ever you are cast in a starring role, but try not to gloat in front of friends — they need no reminders of who you are. Play your cards shrewdly on the 31st and you'll experience another confidence boost. Your popularity on the social scene, including the attention of an admirer, could pose a threat to someone else. It's worth making a big effort to put this tricky customer at their ease.

VIRGO (24 Aug-23 Sept)

Like it or not, you must bite the bullet and admit how ambitious you are. On the 27th, you'll confront a headstrong individual, but be sure to appreciate the gifts they can bring to the table. By the 31st, increased self-belief, even if there is an element of bluff, will propel you the furthest. Four days later, you must resolve a conflict of interests between career ideals and demanding domestic issues.

LIBRA (24 Sept-23 Oct)

To some extent, you're entitled to flights of fancy but, on the 25th, you must face up to a hard taskmaster, who will shape more mundane plans. By the 31st, simply being systematic will assist in the pursuit of more interesting goals. A fan cheering you on will help too. However, around the 4th, you'll have to tackle discrepancies between the hard facts and your dream scheme.

SCORPIO (24 Oct-22 Nov)

Reading between the lines of personal or material transactions is your forte; and on the 25th you'll be in your element, once you've overcome some negative thinking. Around the 28th, sexual sparks will disclose someone's motivation, and call for clear communication and sensitivity at home. On the 3rd, you may find that you need to let go of a certain attachment to reach the intense emotional rewards you crave.

SAGITTARIUS (23 Nov-21 Dec)

Relationships of all kinds take priority now, which means investing quality time in them. A domestic shake-up may be needed on the 27th, but soon you'll see some breathtaking benefits in paying attention to what others can offer. This will be especially relevant on the 31st, if you take the trouble to read any small print. After the 2nd, you'll have a further golden opportunity to transform your life by appreciating another person.

25 May-7 June 2004

CAPRICORN (22 Dec-20 Jan)

You may feel that someone is blocking your path, but for now the best tactic is to try to understand their position, and to bide your time. On the 27th, a radical idea will make waves and you'll need some inspired thinking to solve a financial puzzle. By the 1st, if your feet remain firmly on the ground, you'll enjoy feeling as though your head is in the clouds and find yourself ticking tasks off your 'to do' list almost effortlessly.

AQUARIUS (21 Jan-19 Feb)

Some jobs are more time-consuming than you'd like — but nothing can detract from your creative energy or from the frisson in your love life after the 27th. Someone may surprise you for a change. On the 31st, a generous gesture should lift your spirits even higher. If an acquaintance resents what they see as pure luck, remind them how you've earned it. Your charms are sure to win them round.

PISCES (20 Feb-20 March)

If attracting someone's attention is proving elusive, your energies could be more fruitfully engaged at home. A family member has the power to put a spring in your step by the 28th, which may miraculously lighten up the romantic situation too. By the 4th, you'll need to hold on tight for a heart-pounding roller-coaster ride. This will involve a loved one and someone else who is in a key position to change your life.

ARIES (21 March-20 April)

Your brain is firing on all cylinders but, before you make any impulsive decisions, be aware that consideration and patience will achieve the best results, especially at home. After the 27th, an unexpected turn of events may be challenging, but should also inspire you. By the 1st, everything you need — and more — to ease the daily grind will be available to you, but you must seek it out and make it work for you.

TAURUS (21 April-21 May)

A preoccupation with money may mean you are placing too much emphasis on the material; never lose sight of the fact that you are your most valuable resource. Remember this on the 27th, and resist being cynical about a friend's insight into how to maximise your talents. On the 31st, a romantic offer could enrich you further. But, on the 3rd, steel yourself for a likely run-in over finances.

WHAT'S IN YOUR FRIDGE?

GEMINI A tempting assortment of tidbits you can graze on and dip into. CANCER Fresh, healthy fare, plus comfort food for you and bribes for the kids. LEO Gastronomic delights — prime cuts, wicked desserts and extravagant delicacies — are enthroned in a deluxe model. VIRGO Spotless shelves sport organic produce, vitamins and medicine — all in labelled containers. LIBRA Decorative dishes share shelf space with cosmetics or cut flowers kept fresh for a special occasion. SCORPIO A stash of aphrodisiac oysters is staple fare. Strong blue cheeses and black pudding may also be stockpiled. SAGITTARIUS Your fridge groans under the weight of game, spices and foreign specialities — some well past their sell-by date. CAPRICORN Your fridge-freezer holds low-fat, low-carb meals, all prepared in advance to maximise efficiency. AQUARIUS An eccentric mixture, stored in cold packs and tins, which resembles a science lab. PISCES It's overflowing with goodies, from booze to your favourite fish, and a sprinkling of random objects you've absent-mindedly misplaced. ARIES Snacks, fast food and energy drinks to relieve hunger pangs and keep your energy levels high. TAURUS Your jumbo appliance bulges with quality produce and mouthwatering ingredients for gourmet feasts.
